

Junior League helps special needs kids

MOUNTAIN LAKES
— The Junior League of Morristown has given the Lakeland Hills YMCA $2,500 for its Individuals With Special Needs Aquatic Program.

Fifty children from across Morris County with a range of special needs enrolled in the class, including children with Down Syndrome, autism, a very rare bone disease and mitochondrial disorders, among others, according to a release from the Y.

Due to popular demand, the Lakeland Hills YMCA is planning a second round of iSNAP classes this spring. For more information call (973) 334-2820.
